Travel like a Star

Australia's glamour set reveal the holiday hot spots they head for to relax, rejuvenate and get inspired by Claire Davey

STATIONERY DESIGNER
CHRISTINA RE

Renowned for her eponymous stationery range, Christina Re—who was born in Rome and has explored Asia extensively—uses travel as a means of hunting and gathering inspiration. A “journal and a notebook for writing and drawing in” are the essentials she takes with her. Also key? Uber-evocative destinations that fill her with fantastic ideas for her designs.

1 ISLAND “Treasure Island, Fiji, is my favourite destination,” says Re. “My fiancé Jason has a good friend who organised two canoes for us, gave us a map and sent us rowing off to find treasure on a deserted island. When we got there, we found a little fridge with a bottle of champagne and two glasses!” Treasure Island Resort, Fiji. Bures (three-person) from $410 per night (02-9543 0443/fiji-treasure.com).

2 HOTEL “It has to be Hôtel Costes in Paris. Besides being a glamorous place to stay, you can enjoy great food in chic surroundings.” Hôtel Costes, Rue Saint-Honoré, Paris. Doubles from $930 per night (0011-33-1-4244 5000/hotelcostes.com).

3 RESTAURANT “Aqua Restaurant in Hong Kong—the Thai Curry Salmon is my favourite dish. I especially love the unique presentation of the meals.” Aqua Restaurant, Kowloon, Hong Kong (0011-852-3427 2288/aqua.com.hk).

4 WEEKEND BREAK “Daylesford in Victoria. I head to Hepburn Springs to relax with a massage or visit wineries. I also like to stop off at Lavandula Farm for lunch.” Lavandula Swiss Italian Farm, Shepherds Flat, Vic (03-5476 4393/lavandula.com.au).

5 CITY “Fabulous LA. The Viceroy hotel is a place I love to stay at because of the glamorous interior design.” Viceroy, Santa Monica, LA. Doubles from $418 per night (0011-310-260 7500/viceroyasantamonica.com).
